

Box framed metallic foil prints

Short description:

Box framed metallic prints with a gold or silver foil finish

Long description:

Bring depth and distinction to your wall art with our box framed foil art in gold or silver – ideal for showcasing bold graphics, abstract artwork or stylish typography with a shimmering finish.

Available to order in our hand-stained box frame, complete with a protective Perspex or anti-reflective moth-eye glaze, this specialist substrate is designed so that you can choose precisely where you want the silver or gold foil paper to appear in your custom image.

What's more, our advanced print technology puts us in a unique position to provide short print runs without any setup costs, enabling you to order custom foil prints as one-offs or in large quantities, both at scale and at speed. We can also produce prints sized up to a massive 40x40", giving you the flexibility to create and sell these specialist prints without limits.

Our framed metallic prints are made from a non-woven material with a polyester backing for a premium, heavyweight feel. They come in sizes ranging from 6x6" to 40x40" and are delivered ready to hang for speed and convenience.

Read our foil printing setup guide to prep your files for production.

Please note: Transparent areas in your artwork will show the material's gold or silver background.
